

STILL MOON ARTS

Youth Videographer - Job Description

This role for an emerging artist under 30 involves the creation of short documentary video/s for Still Moon Arts' Salmon Sounds in Motion project. This is including but not limited to story ideation, design, filming, interviews, and editing. The videographer will work with the Artistic Director and General Manager of Still Moon Arts, members of the Still Moon Arts Board and Communications Committee, and the artists in Salmon Sounds in Motion. This position is designed to fulfill the marketing and documentation needs of the Society, while utilizing the skills and interests of the youth. Mentorship will be provided by artists at both Still Moon Arts and VIVO Media Arts. This is a short-term contract to film source material June - September with editing from September - November 2019. Salmon Sounds in Motion will conclude with a screening of the documentary. Must have flexible availability to attend evening and weekend rehearsals and performances.

Responsibilities

- Record rehearsals, meetings, and performances using camera and audio equipment
- Setup and breakdown recording equipment before and after filming
- Work with Still Moon Arts staff team, dance mentors, and emerging performers to ensure material captured is representative of creative process and society's branding
- Transport and maintain equipment, either your own or rented from VIVO Media Arts
- Edit captured AV to tell engaging story of the creation and production of Salmon Sounds in Motion
- Creation of short videos to promote performances and related events on social media

Qualifications

- Talented in the art of storytelling and attention to detail
- Some knowledge, passion, and experience with videography and/or photography
- Knowledge and experience in both community outreach and digital marketing
- Excellent verbal communication and non-judgemental attitude
- Excellent organizational skills, including time management and multi-tasking
- Able to work independently, set own deadlines, and take initiative
- Ability to lift up to 25kg
- Previous editing experience & link to portfolio an asset
- Post-secondary studies in fine arts, videography, photography, communications, graphic design, marketing, journalism, social practice arts, psychology, sociology, english, or other related fields an asset.

Contract Details

Compensation: $2500 in three installments

Schedule: June - December 2019

Location: Renfrew-Collingwood community, Vancouver

Please submit your resume and cover letter by 5pm on May 21st to General Manager, Bea Miller <b.bea.miller@gmail.com>. Interviews will take place the week of May 27th.

Still Moon Arts is an equal opportunity employer. We encourage individuals from a variety of backgrounds to apply, including folks from the LGBTQ community, women, Indigenous people, newcomers, and others from visible minorities.